the car wheels and so injured above the knee as to necessitate amputation after being brought here. The shock was after being brought here. The shock was so great to his system that he died. His brother reached here Saturday morning, paid all the expenses that had been incurred, and Sunday afternoon the body was sent to Maryland for interment. Mr. Durkin was a man of good family connections, and at the time of the accident was returning home from Atlanta, Ga. Being short of money, he was riding without ticket or permit.

The remains of Mr. Benjamin F. Miles, agallant ex-Confederate soldier, who died on Sunday at the Soldiers' Home near Richmond, arrived here this morning under the escort of Messrs, William Echols, T. A. St. Clair, William R. Williams, and John Satchfield, inmates of the home, and were buried in Blandford. Mr. Miles was about 72 years old, was a member of Mabone's brigade, was for some years a private on the police corps of this city, and was in all respects an estimable man and citizen. TISTICS.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Metodist Sunday-School Association, of this city and Ettrick, was held yesterday afternoon at the High-Sirect church. The attendance, as usual, was very large, and the programme very interesting. The address on the occasion was delivered by Rev. L. L. Banks. The organization and average attendance of the schools were shown by the reports of the several superintendeats to be as follows: Organization. Attendance Schools.

A SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL. On Sunday morning twenty-two persons joined the Washington-Street Methodist Episcopal church, as the result in part of the revival meetings which have been conducted during the past two weeks by Rev. Dr. A. C. Bledsoe. There have been over fifty conversions at these meetings, the parties to which are not confined to the Methodist church. A MYSTERIOUS ATTACK.

Mr. Benjamin Totty, the worthy and faithful watchman at the Swift Creek cotton-factory, in Chesterfield county, narrowly escaped serious injuries last night at the hands of some unknown person. About 11 celock, while standing in the door of the factory building, a large rock, weighing between one and two pounds, was hurled at him. It struck the edge of the door-frame, near his side, and fell at his feet. Had it struck him on the head Mr. Totty would have been killed. The night was so dark that Mr. Totty could not recognize his assailant, though he could see him running away.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL. PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Mr. Douglass Gee is quite sick at his residence, on Hinton street.

The Master Mason's Daughter's degree was conferred at the Masonic Hallto-night by Worshipful Master George Potts. The occasion was one of much interest.

The Veteran Fire Association of New York, filling eight Pullman coaches, passed through this city to-day on their return from New Orleans, where they had been to witness the Mardi-Gras festivities.

COLONEL D. A. WEISIGER.

In the account of the gallantry of Dr. B.
H. May at the battle of the Wilderness, published in the DISPATCH of SUNDAY, YORT correspondent unintentionally made Colonel E. M. Field the colone of the Twelith Regiment. General D. A. Weisiger was in command at the time, and Colonel Field was in charge of the corps of sharpshooters, a splendid body of men, comprising the picked soldiers of the brigade. Sutsequently, when General Weisiger took command of the brigad-, Colonel Field took charge of the regiment.

Arrangements are being made for the organization of a large and active "D. B.
Hill Democratic club" in this city, and the meeting for that purpose will be held within the next few days. An effort will

South.

Rev. H. C. Cheatham, of the Market-Street Methodist Episcopal church, has concluded his series of special sermons touching upon the sins of the community.

Mr. T. M. Gilliam, treasurer of the Lodge of the Progressive Benefit Order here, is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Arthur Loyd, the receiver of the order, in Boston, which gives faint hopes of anything but a small return to the holders of certificates for the money they have paid in. This order is one of the short-term assessment companies, which professed to be able to pay back to the members in a few months a much larger sum than they paid in. In November last eleven members of the lodge here whose certificates had matured were paid off in full, but those whose certificates matured a few days later received nothing. The eleven Petersburg members thus paid off were probably the last who received any benefit. In his letters, the receiver states that 55,000 certificates have been issued, but that only the sum of $50,000 is in the treasury for distribution. This would make less than a dollar dividend on each certificate for the amount paid in. The receiver claims that all of the assessments recently paid are to be counted in as the assets of the order, and, therefore, liable for distribution as dividends. Mr. Gilliam is of opinion that the number of certificates is largely overstated, as many of the old members have dropped out. At any rate, the matter is one of interest to many people in Petersburg.

A SOLDIER.

Mr. Windsor was an ex-Confederate, having served in the cavalry during the war. He was a most popular gentleman being prominent in all public matters, and half his charities are not known. The needy never appealed to him in vain. He was the son of the late Richard Windsor, and was in the e2d year of his age. He leaves a wife and two children, Richard Windsor, of this city, and Mrs. Dr. Arthur Snowden, of Washington. He will be buried from his late home to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.
